THE WASHINGTON POST

Approved For Release 2004/09/08 1CAURING8-01314R000300410010-7

Washingtonian Publisher Shifts To New Republic

Robert J. Myers is resigning as publisher of the Washing-tonian magazine to take a sim-ilar post with the New Repub-lic, it was announced yester-

Myers, who with Laughlin Phillips founded the Washing-tonian three years ago, will retonian three years ago, will remain as vice president of Washington Magazine, Inc., and will continue to be a stockholder and a member of its board of directors.

Myers will replace Garth Hite at the New Republic. Hite leaves to become publisher of the Atlantic magazine Oct. 1.

the Atlantic magazine Oct. 1.